BAPTIST COLLEGIATE MINISTRIES

Rev. Scott Packett, BCM Director

The Baptist Collegiate Ministries at Tennessee Wesleyan is a student led campus ministry focused on discipleship and service. Five TWC students (Lead Team) - Alex Hicks, Morgan McWilliams, Kelsey Stewart, Kira Wade, and Robbie Whited - under the direction of Scott Packett, lead BCM.

Weekly Gatherings

Every Thursday night at 8:00pm, BCM has a worship gathering on campus in the Old College building. The Lead Team is encouraged to establish relationships with students during the week in order to invite them to the gathering. Kelsey Stewart leads the worship time, and each week we have a special speaker. So far this semester we have had an average of twenty students in attendance.

Weekly Lead Team Meetings

Every Friday at 4:00pm, the Lead Team meets in the Packett home for approximately two hours. The purpose of this meeting is twofold: discipleship and planning for the weekly gatherings and special projects and events. It is our desire to provide the Lead Team a home away from home so that they can feel like part of our family, receive one-on-one discipleship, and have the opportunity to see what a marriage that seeks to glorify God looks like.

Weekly BCM Meals

Every Thursday at 11:45, local Baptist churches serve meals to TWC students at First Baptist Church of Athens. Thus far, we have had an average of 40 in attendance.

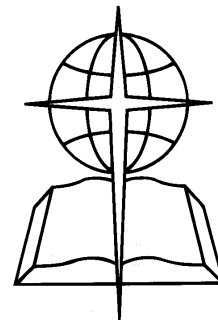

Special Events

On September 26th, BCM partnered with Idlewild Baptist Church in hosting a campus cookout on the Wesley Commons Lawn. Members of IBC donated, grilled, and served hot dogs to over 60 students, while BCM students built relationships with those who ate. BCM went on a Fall Retreat during Fall Break (October 10-13) to Norris Lake. During this retreat, Scott Packett taught five sessions on the following topics: The Sufficiency and Authority of Scripture, How to Study the Bible, Christian Freedom, Sex and Marriage that Glorifies God, and What the Bible Says About Issues the Students Are Dealing With (A special Q&A time). This was a tremendous time of discipleship for the six students who went, and a huge blessing for the Packett's.

The Vision

Our vision for BCM is that we would reach the campus of TWC with the Gospel of Jesus Christ, making disciples of as many students as possible, one student at a time. We cannot do this alone. We desire the cooperation of local churches in the McMinn-Meigs Baptist Association, not only in preparing meals, but also in helping in the discipleship of these students. Reaching the next generation must be at the forefront of every churches mission, and it is our desire to be the link by which churches can get on board with this mission. It is our belief that BCM is not a supplement for local church involvement, but an extension of it.

BAPTIST COLLEGIATE MINISTRIES

Rev. Scott Packett, BCM Director

How can local churches get involved?

- Pray that God would bless our efforts in making disciples.
- Give to the association, and answer the call to give when BCM needs financial help to be better equipped to make disciples of students.
- Send members who desire to learn how to reach college students to our weekly gatherings, and encourage them to come ready to engage the student's heart with love and service, not to just invite them to church.

In January, we are planning on taking our Lead Team to Passion in Atlanta. Over 60,000 college students will gather together to learn how to be disciples and make disciples by some of the nations leading pastors. The cost for each student is $200 (this covers conference fee, hotel, and meals). If your church would be interested in sponsoring one student, our students would love the opportunity to come and share with your congregation why they are involved in BCM, and what God is doing in their lives through it.

Thank you for the privilege of allowing me to serve our students at Tennessee Wesleyan. Although it seems like a sacrifice for a bi-vocational pastor and his family, we believe it to be God's calling on our lives, and are pleased to realign our lives to serve. It has truly been life-giving to our family.

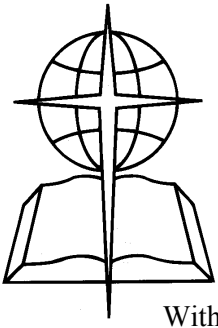

For His Glory,

Scott Packett
BCM Director

CHRISTIAN BUILDERS OF SOUTHEAST TENNESSEE

Rev. Stan Hammonds, Christian Builders Director

Christian Builders had a very productive year due to the volunteers and donors who contribute time, resources and prayers for the efforts. This year Christian Builders built over 20 handicap ramps, added handrails to 3 houses and did several minor emergency repairs. People from at least 12 different churches worked over 650 man hours doing the projects this year. There were over 1140 man hours worked doing the paperwork, visiting prospective projects, designing ramps and lining up labor. We thank each one that participated in every way. We spent nearly $9,000.00 (in grants and donations) to complete these projects. If you have a group (men's, youth or other) that would like to do one of these projects, please let the associational office know. Please leave your name and number and the type of project you would like to do. We have to turn people away every year due to the lack of volunteers.

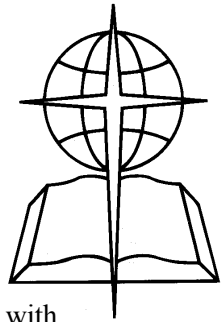

DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS REPORT

Rev. E. Ray Luck, Director of Missions

With this report I will complete my 13th year as your Director of Missions and what a wonderful time of service it has been. This is a great Association and I count it a privilege to have had the opportunity to serve you and look forward to what God has in store for us in the future days. The balance of this report will serve as a recap of what God has done in our midst over the past several years.

1. From 2001-2010 the Association renovated the back portion of the Baptist Center and opened a Pastoral Counseling Center. As a result many individuals and families were helped. Not every session was successful, but probably 70% plus of the clients that came our way received spiritual, life changing help through this ministry.
2. Since 2009 the Association has entered into formal and informal partnerships with the following:
 - a) Big Sky Baptist Association in Southeast Montana (a formal 3year partnership signed in 2011)
 - b) Southwestern Baptist Association in Hamilton, Ohio (an informal partnership begun in 2012)
 - c) Central Atlantic Leisure Ministries (CALM) in Ocean City, Maryland (an informal partnership begun in 2011)
 - d) Canyon Baptist Church in Hungry Horse, Montana (an informal partnership established in 2009)
 - e) Teams from churches in our Association have gone to each of these areas to do construction, VBS, soul-winning, etc. since 2009. We hope in the future many more teams will be heading out to these areas on mission with the Gospel.
3. Retired Missionaries to Japan, Ed and Sharon Smith, have been using the Baptist Center on Tuesdays teaching English to the Japanese wives who live in this area as a result of their husbands working at Denso. The International Friends, a local ministry to internationals living in McMinn and Meigs Counties, meets at the Baptist Center from time to time during a given year.
4. "Shoes for Orphan Souls" has become a very special ministry in the Moody Radio listening area. Since 2005 the McMinn-Meigs Association Baptist Center has served as a collection point for the ministry. Each year, during the month of August, we collect well over 500 pairs of new shoes and over 1,000 pairs of new socks. The shoes are taken to Moody Radio in Chattanooga, then sent to Buckner Orphanage's Headquarters in Dallas, Texas. Once in Dallas the shoes and socks are repackaged and sent all over the world and given to children in desperate need of shoes and socks. On August 27, 2013 Moody Radio did a live remote broadcast from the Baptist Center in honor of "Shoes for Orphan Souls" and their 40th Anniversary of Broadcast Ministry.
5. During a given year many people come through the doors of the Baptist Center to use the Media Center (which by the way is one of the best Association Media Center's around). There are also many churches, pastors and laypeople who come by on a regular basis for fellowship, counsel and assistance.

DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS REPORT

Rev. E. Ray Luck, Director of Missions

6. Another ministry that continues to impact our churches is used literature. In partnership with Edwin Hodges' Ministries in Alabama we ask our churches to bring their used literature to the Baptist Center which in turn is sent to Alabama to be repackaged and sent all over the world to be used by churches in other countries.
7. Every five years the Association conducts an On Mission Celebration (OMC). The next one is scheduled for 2016. Since 2001 we have conducted 3 OMC's and have averaged 45-50 participating churches each time. The event usually runs from Saturday through Wednesday. Missionaries come to us from Tennessee, North America and from around the world. They are assigned to the participating churches where they share the story of what God is doing through them in the areas where they serve. Each time we conduct an OMC people in our churches are challenged to be more involved in mission work either through short term or long term missions.
8. The following are some other things that are conducted by the Association:
 - a) Continuing Education Classes (Tuesday night Bible Class led by Dr. Bill Vest and Thursday night Seminary Extension Class led by Rev. Mart Duggan). For more information call 745-2248.
 - b) Camp Cherokee located in Calhoun on the Hiwassee River conducts three summer camps for children in July each year. The camp is also available for churches to use on a first call basis. For information on Camp schedule, camp availability, etc. call Kathy at 745-2248. The camp director is Rev. Mike Bernard.
 - c) My wife Judy is the Association WMU Director. The WMU continues to be the number one promoter and educator of mission work in the Southern Baptist Convention. The Association provides a Mission Resource Office at the Baptist Center. For more information call Judy at 649-0394.
 - d) The Baptist Colligate ministry (BCM) at Tennessee Wesleyan College (TWC) is still one of the strongest faith based organizations on that campus. Ric Wilson has retired after 23 years of service and Rev. Scott Packett, Pastor of Idlewild Baptist Church, has been employed to continue that great work. For information on how your church can be involved please call Scott at 218-791-7113 (cell).
 - e) The Association conducts an Annual Meeting in the fall and an Association Celebration in the spring of each year.
 - f) The Baptist Center is often used by churches, individuals and the TBC from time to time for meetings and special events.
 - g) The Association also serves as a clearinghouse for TBC and SBC information for our churches.
 - h) Every Monday (except on holidays) during a given year the Pastor's Conference meets at the Baptist Center at 10am. The meeting is open to all ministers who wish to attend.
 - i) The Association provides a service to our churches by selling Lifeway VBS material. If our churches purchase Lifeway VBS material through the Association, Lifeway will send the Association 15% of the cost (the material cost through the Association or Lifeway is the

- j) same). The money we receive from Lifeway is used to supplement the cost of the Minister/wives banquet in December of each year.
- k) During the summer when churches complete their VBS they will bring their material and decorations to the Baptist Center for other churches to use as needed.

This has been a lengthy list of what the Association is all about, but I am sure it is not an exhaustive list. It is, however, a good comprehensive list of what the Association is all about. Currently we are looking at a couple of ministries that will enable us to utilize the debt-free facilities God has given to us more effectively in the days to come. Sometimes when you just look at a budget of an organization you might be tempted to say, "Based on the budget that organization is not doing much." However when you start looking at what really goes on you realize that far more goes on than what is reflected on paper.

Again it truly has been a joy to serve you as Director of Missions. Reflecting on what the Association offers I have been energized and am excited about the future of the McMinn-Meigs Association of Baptists and my continuing role as Director of Missions. May God's guiding hand always be on us and may we trust Him more than ever as we move forward "United in Kingdom Service!"

MISSIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

Rev. E. Ray Luck, Director of Missions

The Missions Committee met jointly with the Evangelism Committee several times in 2011-2012 to plan the March 9, 2013 Association Celebration (see Evangelism Committee Report for details). The Committees will once again be working together to plan the next Association Celebration set for the spring of 2014.

The Missions Committee continues to be responsible for the distribution of the Volunteer Missions Support Fund. Applications are received in the Association Office no later than the first Friday of April each year. The committee meets toward the end of April of that year to determine the amount to be awarded to each applicant.

The committee also continues to monitor the Partnerships with Big Sky Association in Southeast Montana and the Southwestern Association in Hamilton, Ohio just north of Cincinnati.

Missions is a strong component of who we are as Southern Baptists. Continue to pray for the Association Missions Committee's effort to keep Missions at the forefront of all that we do as an Association.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION REPORT

Judy Luck, Association Director

“The Story Lives On – Celebrate, Connect, Commit”: stories of how mission education influenced their lives in the last 125 years, 1888-2013, were the inspiration to celebrate at the National WMU Convention, June 9 – 10 in Houston, Texas. Dellanna O’Brien, past National WMU President said ‘we are a part of a seamless history which we connect the stories of the past to write our own chapters in preparation for those who come after us’. A year of remembering and looking ahead with ‘seasoned eyes’ for God’s direction will climax in Baltimore, Maryland, in June, 2014. We will celebrate, connect with others and commit with faith in God that He will keep the passion of missions in our hearts and be willing to sacrifice for the cause of Christ.

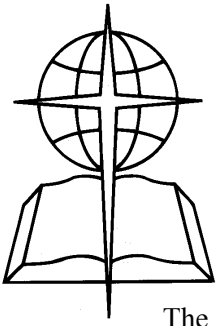

The purpose of the association WMU is to train, provide resources and encourage. This year God has continued to Reveal new training opportunities and resources with the same gospel message: Jesus loves you and Jesus saves; to challenge us to Review our responsibilities, ‘what would YOU have me do’; and always Renew our commitment to “Love the Lord your God with all your mind, heart and soul” and then act on Acts 1:8. Training can come in two forms, in a group setting or individually. August is set aside for mission education and involvement training so we can be ready to teach and involve our churches to pray, give and go. The Association WMU Team stands ready to help and guide individual mission leaders to customize a plan for their church. The organizations under the umbrella of WMU are Mission Friends, Girls in Action, Children in Action, Royal Ambassadors, Acteens, Youth on Mission, Challengers, myMISSION, Women on Mission, Adults on Mission, Families on Missions and Church Wide WMU. Mission Education is for every age group. The McMinn-Meigs Baptist Center has an outstanding media library which includes mission resources. Check us out this year. Through support groups like TN WMU, National WMU, North American Mission Board (NAMB) and International Mission Board (IMB), we can obtain information and resources by phone, mail, email and in person. We are not alone in our responsibility. Encouragement is found in several ways: networking with other mission leaders, joining in prayer for our missionaries and the World Day of Prayer in November. “What is in your hands?” ‘Do all for the Glory of God.’

The theme for the Golden Offering for Tennessee Missions was “Focus Tennessee! See What God Sees”. God sees the big picture from creation to the rapture and the small, micro picture, the individual. “Having eyes, see ye not?” Mark 8:18. We are to see the person He says ‘feed my sheep’.

The WMU’s vision statement remains the same – “Woman’s Missionary Union challenges Christian believers to understand and be radically involved in the mission of God”. The IMB, NAMB and WMU have joined together to write a missions statement: “The work of God through the church by which the gospel of Jesus Christ is extended in word and deed to all the people of the world”.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve here in McMinn-Meigs Association.

EVANGELISM COMMITTEE REPORT

Rev. E. Ray Luck, Director of Missions

The Evangelism Committee along with the Missions Committee planned and conducted a wonderful Association Celebration held at Union McMinn Baptist Church on March 9, 2013. The theme of the event was "More Life" and it was led by Dr. Bobby Welch, Associate Director of the Tennessee Baptist Convention. The event was well attended and we were challenged to be more proactive in sharing the Gospel (Good News) with those we encounter on a day to day basis. The Association Mass Choir, led by Dr. Jean Eledge was once again a great inspiration to all in attendance. The Committee will be working on the plans for another Association Celebration to be held in the spring of 2014.

The Committee would also like to encourage the Association Churches to check into the 1-5-1 Harvest Field Emphasis developed by the Tennessee Baptist Convention. This is a tool designed to help our churches to reach into their community with the Gospel. For more information contact Steve Pearson, Evangelism Director for the Tennessee Baptist Convention at 1-800-558-2090.

EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING

MINUTES ♦ JANUARY 15, 2013

Kathy Fain, Association Clerk

Special Presentation:

Steve Pearson, Evangelism Director for the Tennessee Baptist Convention – Rev. Pearson shared about some of the things we have been doing in Tennessee. Since 2010, we have been doing GPS – God’s Plan for Sharing. This has been a Nation-wide strategy. In 2010 our emphasis was on prayer and prayer-walking; in 2012 – events; in 2014 – Servant-hood evangelism (Love Loud); in 2016 – Relationship Evangelism (One); in 2018 – start something new; and in 2020 – “Celebration”. However it was discovered that in the GPS program, there was not an evangelism tool. In Tennessee, they came up with a strategy called “More Life”. This is not the only strategy that we have. This year in celebration of Billy Graham’s 95th Birthday – Rev. Graham has asked his son Franklin to come up with his largest crusade ever. So on November 7, 2013 in conjunction with Rev. Billy Graham’s 95th Birthday, there will be a 30 minute program “My Hope with Billy Graham”. They are asking you to open up your home to lost people – invite them for a meal or dessert and coffee and while in your home, watch the Billy Graham program and afterwards they ask you to share your personal testimony and invite them to accept Christ. We also have the Harvest – “1-5-1 Harvest”. This strategy is divided up into three groups. A Branch Plant – an extension of a Sunday School Class or small group; a Group Plant – an evangelistic extension of the congregation; a Church Plant – an intentional new church start. There will be a training seminar for this on January 26th at 9:00am – 12:00 pm at New Providence Baptist Church in Loudon, TN. Rev. Pearson then led in prayer.

A motion was made and seconded that the meeting be adjourned. Motion approved.

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE REPORT

Rev. Mike Farmer, Director

The full financial report for the year is on page 5 - 7. Our general receipts for the year was $213,575.50. This is little change from last year's income. Our expenses were $212,594.66. Expenses this year are down about $10,000 from last year. We appreciate all the efforts of everyone to be good stewards of the resources God has entrusted to us.

Our proposed budget for next year is on pages 8 - 9. This year's budget proposal has been reduced to $199,687.00. The Stewardship Committee has been notified of planned drops in giving for the coming year. The budget reflects our attempt to prepare for the estimated income for the coming year. It is our prayer that the members and churches of our Association will continue to be committed to work together for the advancement of God's kingdom in our area.

I would also like to thank the members of the Stewardship Committee who have served faithfully this year, especially Sharon Brown and Kevin Cheatham who have finished their terms of service on the Committee.

Mike Farmer, Stewardship Chairman

CAMP CHEROKEE REPORT

Rev. Mike Bernard, Camp Director

We had a great year at camp this year! Several of our churches made very good use of the facilities for their church program. Our youth camp attendance had a very significant increase in attendance. We had a good two weeks of children's camps with some spiritual decision being made—one of which was for salvation. This coming year we will have available for your church a promotion team that will come to your church and present a video presentation about the exciting things we offer at camp for our associational camp programs. If interested you can call Mike Bernard at 423-507-7135 or Central Baptist Church at 423-745-0400. We do have several projects to be done on the camp grounds. If your church would be interested in one of them, just call the same numbers above.

2013 Revision

BY-LAWS REPORT

Rev. Carl Creasman, By-Laws Director

What is a Baptist Association?

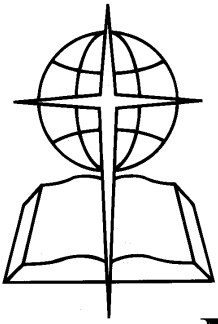

(An Association is what the churches make it.)

A Baptist Association is a self-governing fellowship of autonomous churches sharing a common faith and active on mission in their setting.

1. The churches of an association are free, independent, self-governing, autonomous churches that decide to associate themselves to do certain things together.
2. The fellowship of churches involves oneness, shared life, mutuality and koinonia. It is a “family” of churches and a network, in which churches give and receive assistance. The association as a fellowship emphasizes the relationship existing among the churches.
3. Sharing a common faith - The fellowship of an association is grounded in harmony in faith and practice. Associations differ in regard to the particular doctrinal issues that are important to their fellowship and in regard to the amount of diversity encouraged or tolerated on those issues. Nevertheless, the association, unlike state conventions, is a doctrinally based fellowship.
4. Active on mission refers to God’s mission for the churches individually and the churches together in association. The first responsibility of each church is to deal with the same question, “What is God’s mission for us together?”
5. In their setting deals with everything anyone means when he or she says of his or her association, “But I am in a peculiar situation.” Every situation is peculiar, that is, unique; and it is in the uniqueness of that situation that an association of churches has a very special responsibility to be on mission. Associations differ from one another in such ways as size; geographical territory; population; cultural, ethnic, religious, socioeconomic and demographic characteristics of the area; number, strength and types of churches; history; relationship to the state convention; and stage of development.
6. Self-governing - An association is created by the churches and is accountable to those churches through the messengers. An association, like other general bodies of Baptists, (state conventions, Southern Baptist Convention), is self-governing.

A Baptist Association is what the affiliated churches decide to make it. The messengers and executive board members selected by the churches make those basic decisions. The churches decide again what their association will become when they decide what percentage of their church budgets will go to associational missions.

Southern Baptists are committed to Bold Mission Thrust in a general way. You can be a part of what’s happening in a specific way through involvement in your church and association.

Suggested Bylaw Wording

There has been considerable discussion on how to protect ourselves from possible challenges from someone wanting to have a “same-sex” wedding performed in our churches or any other activity that conflicts with our scriptural beliefs. Therefore we are offering the following wording for individual churches to consider adding to your bylaws which we feel will provide this protection.

Articles of Faith

The currently adopted Southern Baptist Convention version of the Baptist Faith and Message shall be the doctrines adopted by this Church. All activities which this church is involved in or which are conducted by this church or on the premises of this church shall be in accordance with these doctrines.

MCMINN-MEIGS ASSOCIATION OF BAPTISTS, INC.
2013 BY-LAWS REVISION

McMinn-Meigs
Association of Baptists, Inc.
By-Laws

2013 Revision

MCMINN-MEIGS ASSOCIATION OF BAPTISTS, INC.

2013 BY-LAWS REVISION

What is a Baptist Association?

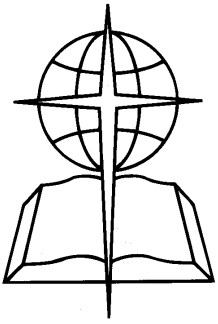

(An Association is what the churches make it.)

A Baptist Association is a self-governing fellowship of autonomous churches sharing a common faith and active on mission in their setting.

1. The churches of an association are free, independent, self-governing, autonomous churches that decide to associate themselves to do certain things together.
2. The fellowship of churches involves oneness, shared life, mutuality and koinonia. It is a “family” of churches and a network, in which churches give and receive assistance. The association as a fellowship emphasizes the relationship existing among the churches.
3. Sharing a common faith - The fellowship of an association is grounded in harmony in faith and practice. Associations differ in regard to the particular doctrinal issues that are important to their fellowship and in regard to the amount of diversity encouraged or tolerated on those issues. Nevertheless, the association, unlike state conventions, is a doctrinally based fellowship.
4. Active on mission refers to God’s mission for the churches individually and the churches together in association. The first responsibility of each church is to deal with the same question, “What is God’s mission for us together?”
5. In their setting deals with everything anyone means when he or she says of his or her association, “But I am in a peculiar situation.” Every situation is peculiar, that is, unique; and it is in the uniqueness of that situation that an association of churches has a very special responsibility to be on mission. Associations differ from one another in such ways as size; geographical territory; population; cultural, ethnic, religious, socioeconomic and demographic characteristics of the area; number, strength and types of churches; history; relationship to the state convention; and stage of development.
6. Self-governing - An association is created by the churches and is accountable to those churches through the messengers. An association, like other general bodies of Baptists, (state conventions, Southern Baptist Convention), is self-governing.

A Baptist Association is what the affiliated churches decide to make it. The messengers and executive board members selected by the churches make those basic decisions. The churches decide again what their association will become when they decide what percentage of their church budgets will go to associational missions.

Southern Baptists are committed to Bold Mission Thrust in a general way. You can be a part of what’s happening in a specific way through involvement in your church and association.

MCMINN-MEIGS ASSOCIATION OF BAPTISTS, INC.

2013 BY-LAWS REVISION

McMinn-Meigs Association of Baptists, Incorporated

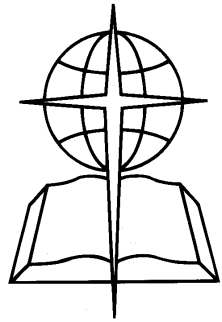

BY-LAWS

Article I – Existence, Purpose and Relationship

- Section 1: The McMinn-Meigs Association of Baptists, Inc. exists because Southern Baptist Churches have chosen to join together in fellowship, evangelism and missions.
- Section 2: The purpose of the McMinn-Meigs Association of Baptists, Inc. is to equip, resource and encourage one another to be faithful Kingdom Servants in obedience to our Lord's Great Commission.
- Section 3: The McMinn-Meigs Association of Baptists, Inc. shall maintain a cooperative relationship with the Tennessee Baptist Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention in a world mission program.

Article II - Voting Body

- Section 1: This Association in session shall be composed of messengers duly elected by the Southern Baptist Churches in McMinn and Meigs Counties who are affiliated with this organization. - Section 2: Each church shall be entitled to two messengers and one additional messenger for each fifty members or fraction thereof after the first hundred with a maximum of ten messengers from any one church.

petitioning church shall have a voice but not a vote in Associational affairs, including the representation on the Executive Committee and messengers to the Association.

A. Articles of Faith

- (1) The Credentials Committee shall contact any member church that fails to conform to the doctrinal positions contained in the adopted Articles of Faith document identified in Article III in order to bring that matter to their attention.
- (2) The Credentials Committee shall make every effort to determine the reasons for this nonconformance and restore the church to fellowship with the Association.
- (3) Should the efforts of the Credentials Committee outlined herein fail to resolve the issue, the Committee shall present a report along with recommendations concerning membership to the Association at the next annual meeting or a special called meeting of the Association called for the expressed purpose of dealing with this issue. No such action shall be taken without at least 14 days written notice to all affiliated churches.
- (4) A recommendation for the loss of membership from the Credentials Committee shall require a two-thirds majority vote of the messengers present and voting at the meeting in which said recommendation is presented.

B. Annual Church Letter
