SEMINARY EXTENSION

Rev. Mart Duggan, Director

Last semester our area of study was in Biblical Backgrounds: How to Understand The Bible. Our text book for the study was 40 Questions About Interpreting the Bible by Robert L. Plummer, associate Professor of New Testament Interpretation at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. There were five enrolled in the study.

This semester we are studying New Testament Survey Part I with the textbooks The New Testament Its Background and Message by Thomas D. Lea and David Alan Black. Lea was dean of the School of Theology at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Black was professor of New Testament and Green at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. The other textbook is Introducing the New Testament by Joe Blair, chairman of the Department of Religion at Houston Baptist University. Anyone desiring to join our studies call the associational office.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Marie Underwood, Director

Agency D3, Discover, Decide, Defend – that was the theme. . . wow! The associational team attended the state sponsored training. White lab coats were everywhere.

With knowledge and materials in hand we planned our own clinic for the association. This was held at North Etowah Baptist Church on March 31st. We had 83 attendees representing 14 churches.

A special thanks to North Etowah Baptist Church for hosting the clinic. What a wonderful group of loving Christians! Another thanks to all who served on the Association Vacation Bible School team.

DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS REPORT

Rev. E. Ray Luck, Director of Missions

With this report I will complete my 14th year as your Director of Missions (DoM) and what a wonderful time of service it has been. This is a great Association and I count it a privilege to have had the opportunity to serve and minister with you. As is the case with all things on this earth there is a time to begin and a time to end (sounds almost like Ecclesiastes). Fourteen years ago I began my ministry here on November 1, 2000. My first task, besides getting settled, was to host the Royal Ambassadors from FBC, Athens, tell them about the Association (which I knew generally but not much specifically about this Association) and give them a tour of the building. From that point my ministry here has expanded to include many things. I remember that Martin Bowlin and Oran Creasman took me on a driving tour of the Association and in a week's time I saw every church location. Someone asked me after that experience if I thought I could find the churches again to which I answered, "yes, but I now only have to find them one at a time." In the time I have served as DoM I have found all the affiliated churches, one at a time and more than once. I have tried to be very visible and always available for special events as called upon. My visitation to churches have been well documented and I have tried to visit every association affiliated church at least once a year, sometimes more. Getting to know pastors and church members has been a joy, however, the one downside to retirement is that I will not have the opportunity to continue those relationships, unless of course I am asked to preach on occasions. For me personally 2014 has been a year of personal transition coming off a major illness and surgery in 2013. In December 2013, while on vacation at Gulf Shores, Alabama God impressed on me that it was time to retire from my ministry as DoM, which has spanned 25 years in three different associations the longest being here at 14 years. I can look back over those 25 years and especially the 14 years here and be joyful over what God has done through me and in the Associations He led me to serve. When I turn in my keys at the end of October, 2014 I can walk away knowing in my heart of hearts that I gave to this Association the very best God has planted in me and am confident that the Association is well with a bright future. The one grievous spot is that the affiliated churches are not supporting the Association financially as well as I feel they could. My philosophy of life is simple when it comes to something like this, "If you are going to be a part of some organization or group then by that choice you should be willing to support it both financially and with your involvement." I truly hope and pray that every affiliated church of the McMinn-Meigs Association of Baptists will, in the years to come, step up and support the Association that its ministries might expand. I am stepping aside as DoM, but in the not too distant future a new DoM will be hired and I am confident that you will embrace him with the same love and support you have given to me these 14 years. Since we are not leaving the area I am confident that I will be seeing many of you from time to time here and there. It is my prayer that God will bless you, your church and our Association as we stand "United in Kingdom Service".

One additional word! In 2014 we began the process of exploring the opening of a Free Dental Clinic to be housed in the back portion of the Association Baptist Center. The process started off great, but began to wane due to busy schedules. The clinic idea has not been scrapped, just on hold for right now. All the information and contacts will be passed on to the next DoM and hopefully after he gets settled he can carry this project through to completion, hopefully within the next year. There are many things that need to be done that will require resources, such as the reconfiguring of the rooms in the back of our building and the acquisition of needed equipment, etc. One thing we did accomplish this year was the acquisition of some used equipment like chairs, x-ray equipment and other items. These items were procured by John Witt of Patterson Dental Supply in Knoxville from Free Dental Clinics in Johnson City and Knoxville who had updated their equipment needs. These items were graciously delivered by Creed & Howard Transfer Company and are now housed in the back of the Baptist Center ready to be installed. I thank the late Emerson Brady who contacted Sam Stephens at Creed & Howard asking if they could deliver the equipment. It is my prayer that this Clinic will become a reality in our Association very soon as there is a great need for this ministry in McMinn and Meigs Counties. May God bless and use you and our Association always in Kingdom Service!

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION REPORT

Judy Luck, Association Director

"The Story Lives On" continues to be the theme for 2013-2014. After celebrating 125 years of mission education, 'we cannot help speaking about what we have seen and heard' (Acts 4:20) — WMU's annual watchword scripture.

Meeting in Baltimore, Maryland June 8th and 9th climaxed the year-long celebration of 125 years. Royal Service (forerunner of Missions Mosaic) in the October 1962 issue defined anniversary: "It is honoring the past . . . It is serving the present . . . it is building the future". And, what a future we have with our young to any age learning about missions, praying for missions, giving to missions, and participating in missions. Visiting the churches Annie attended, the gravesite of Annie plus seeing and hearing about our rich heritage made an impact on all who participated in the Annie Armstrong tour. NAMB and the IMB had a joint commissioning service with the parade of flags. What a sight to see how God is working here in North America and around the world. The challenge continues to be that we understand and be radically involved in the mission of God.

Another milestone happened in 2013 - 100 years of girls' missions education from Girls Auxiliary to Girls in Action today. Through the article, "Mission Awareness Leads to Mission Involvement" in the association newsletter, LINKS, we have been reminded that the five star ideals of Girls' Auxiliary are just as teachable today as they were in 1924. Thanks be to God that those principles have stood the test of time.

According to the 2013 McMinn-Meigs ACP WMU information chart, there are 24 churches with one or more WMU organizations. Having any age-group organization means using WMU material to prepare, promote and accomplish specific tasks. Would you plant a garden without a shovel or seeds? Or, take a trip without a map or GPS? The right tools are just a phone call or website away. To call: 1-800-968-7301 or to order on the web: www.wmystore.com. Resources, training and networking are like a three-legged stool. Good foundation and stability with growth help us to be prepared in doing our work unto the Lord. Twenty-four churches plus all the other churches in the McMinn-Meigs Association, God bless you as you continue to study, pray, give and go where God leads.

Now on a personal level, what is the "IT" that "ignites" your passion for missions to be "transformed" into the person God created you to be? "I" can stand for ignite; "T", for transformed. WMU has the resources, training and networking to get started with the Holy Spirit directing you toward the "right" ministry for you. "Reflect" on last year and "release" or surrender your all to HIM this year.

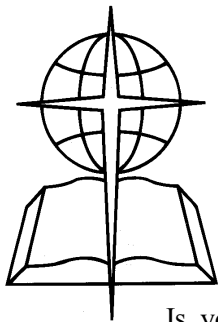

On November 4th, the World Day of Prayer's theme was "LOVE". The message we received from I Corinthians 13 enabled us to pray for the seven continents' requests - 'seeing through God's eyes'.

Peru - land of diversity - was the study with the Lottie Moon Christmas Offertory/Week of Prayer emphasis. God is moving as missionaries and their national partners find ways to reach the urban dwellers and indigenous villagers with the ultimate goal of Peruvians reaching the nations.

In February we witnessed several children groups participating in the Children's Ministry Day. The theme was 'Reaching Across Generations, Telling The Story'. This theme should reach across more days and weeks than just Children's Ministry Day and it does.

"As for us, we cannot help speaking about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20 NIV), combined with the scripture emphasis to "Wake Up" in Romans 13:11 for the Season of Prayer for State Missions should motivate us to share the Gospel to a 'lost and dying world' because the world is literally coming to our Tennessee soil.

Thank you for the opportunity serve here in McMinn-Meigs Association.

- In order to make this work effectively, it is recommended that Kathy move from an hourly employee to a salaried employee.
- If approved, this would go into effect the first week of February 2014.

No other Business.

Director of Missions Report:

EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING

MINUTES ♦ OCTOBER 20, 2014

Kathy Fain, Association Clerk

Rev. Russ Maples, Moderator, called the 91st Annual Meeting of the McMinn-Meigs Association of Baptists to order. We began the meeting with a video message from Dr. Randy Davis, Executive Director-Treasurer of the Tennessee Baptist Convention. Dr. Davis thanked everyone for their attendance at the Prayer Rallies across the state of Tennessee. He also reminded us of our history: starting hundreds of churches, beginning educational institutions which has had a tremendous impact on our culture for Christ; and being very compassionate in starting non-profit hospitals in our state. With that he challenged us to do something that has never been done before: seeing at least 50,000 Tennesseans annually saved and baptized by the year 2024 (our 150th anniversary). This is objective one of five objectives that will be presented at the Summit in November at Brentwood Baptist Church. Objective two is to revitalize at least 500 churches who are at risk of closing their doors within the next ten years. Objective three: planting at least 1,000 new churches; objective four: increase our cooperative program and our associational giving to rise; and objective five: double our Golden offering. Please pray that God will do in Tennessee what's never been done before. Milburn Harmon, Minister of Music at First Baptist Church Decatur led the congregation in singing "How Great Thou Art". Rev. Jamey Davis, Pastor, welcomed the messengers to First Baptist Decatur, shared Isaiah 53:1-6 and led in an opening prayer.

Rev. Russ Maples, Moderator presented the program for the 91st Annual Meeting (found on page 2 of the Book of Reports) for adoption. The motion carried.

Registration of Messengers: we have 131 messengers representing 35 churches present this evening.

New Pastors were recognized as follows: Rev. Victor Abernathy, Pastor of Pisgah Baptist Church; Rev. Scott Campbell, Pastor of Goodsprings Baptist Church; Rev. Michael Smith, Pastor of Pope Avenue Baptist Church; Rev. Ross Heinrich, Pastor of Sanford Baptist Church; and Rev. Neal Pillion, Pastor of Rocky Mount Baptist Church.

Visitors were recognized as follows: Vicky Hulsey, Childhood Specialist with the Tennessee Baptist Convention; Bill Gruenewald, with the Tennessee Baptist Foundation; and Jessica Brackins with the Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes.

Business Session:

- Rev. Russ Maples, Moderator, presented the following recommendations on behalf of the Program Committee:

- 1) that Rev. Russ Maples, 2013-2014 Moderator, preach the Annual sermon in 2015;
- 2) that First Baptist Church Calhoun serve as the Host Church for the Annual Meeting on Monday, October 19, 2015.

The motion carried.

- Rev. Russ Maples, Moderator, presented the Nominating Committee/Committee on Committees Report (found on page 3 & 4 in the Book of Reports). Motion carried.
- Rev. Mike Farmer, Chairman of the Stewardship Committee presented the Treasurer's Report for this past year, noting that our receipts were down 7% from last year. The good news is that our expenses for the past year were down almost 10% for the year. The reports were accepted as printed. Rev. Farmer then presented the proposed budget for the coming year (found on page 8 & 9 in the Book of Reports). The budget was accepted as printed. Motion carried.

- Ken Jones, Chairman of the Personnel Committee introduced the Personnel Committee to the messengers: Rev. Russ Maples, Pastor of First Baptist Englewood; Rev. Gerald Perry, Pastor of Mount Pisgah Baptist Church; Rev. Michael Hodsdon, Pastor of Oak Grove Baptist Church; Rev. Mark Wade, Pastor of North Etowah Baptist Church and himself – Ken Jones layperson from First Baptist Decatur. They are searching for the new Director of Missions for the McMinn-Meigs Association of Baptists. They have contacted pastors in our association with the question of “what are you looking for in the next Director of Missions?” They responded with five qualifications for the new DOM. They are:
  1. A man with an associational vision
  2. Man of conviction, boldness, courage and passion to lead our Association to the next level of service
  3. Mission minded leader to serve our local churches as they go on mission to show Jesus to the world
  4. Great preacher of the word and be ready, willing and able to fill the pulpit when called upon by our association Pastors
  5. A man who is a Pastor to our Pastors

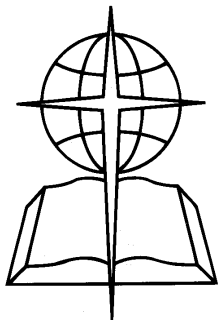

When they began this process, they put out a notice on the Tennessee Baptist Convention website, the Southern Baptist Convention website, and ran an ad in the Baptist and Reflector. They received 182 resumes from all over the United States, two foreign countries and from some very impressive people. They have narrowed these down to five people. They have not interviewed anyone yet. The Personnel committee feels that the proposed budget is not sufficient to call a new Director. They did a survey across the state of Tennessee of Baptist Associations of our comparable size and rural territory and the average pay scale is about 20% higher than what we are paying now. They do not feel that they can confidently make an offer to a new Director of Missions with the pay scale that is proposed in this budget. The Personnel Committee is making the following recommendations to the body:

1. That this pay package go back to the Stewardship Committee for further review and brought back to this body even if we have to meet in special session. (when asked to restate this recommendation – We ask the Stewardship Committee to reconsider the budget and see if they can find additional funding for the Director of Missions pay package.) Motion carried.
  2. During the interim, that Kathy Fain carry on with the day to day operations in the office. Problems should be referred to the incoming Moderator, Michael Hodsdon.

Committee/Ministry Reports:

- Judy Luck, Associational WMU Director presented her report (found on page 13 in the Book of Reports). The WMU celebrated their 125th Anniversary with a year-long celebration beginning in June 2013 and ending in June 2014 in Baltimore, MD the birthplace of Annie Armstrong. The WMU theme for 2014-2016 is “All for You: Surrender, Sacrifice and Serve”. The Project Help emphasis for the next two years is PTSD (Post Traumatic Stress Disorder). The WMU has prepared a Bible study entitled “Drawing Near – Understanding and Supporting Those with PTSD” which we have in our association media library which will help us to respond to individuals and families dealing with PTSD. She then drew attention to the paragraph in her report concerning what is the “IT” that “ignites” your passion for missions to be “transformed” into the person God created you to be.

- Bill Gruenewald, who is the President-Treasurer of the Tennessee Baptist Foundation gave us a brief overview about the Tennessee Baptist Foundation – what it is and what it does. The Foundation report can be found on page 29 in the Book of Reports which gives the details of the work of the Tennessee Baptist Foundation.

Milburn Harmon led the congregation in singing “Blessed Assurance”.

Rev. Russ Maples recognized the members of our churches who have passed away during this past year; reading Revelation 14:13 and then led in prayer.

Rev. E. Ray Luck presented Rev. Russ Maples with a plaque and a gift certificate to Cracker Barrel in appreciation for his service as the Association Moderator during the 2013-2014 association year. Rev. Luck then presented a card and a gift certificate to Kathy Fain who is celebrating 10 years as Ministry Assistant to the Association.

Rev. Luck shared some thoughts about the last 14 years as the Director of Missions of this Association. He reflected on a message that he preached to the Executive Committee on September 20, 2000 from II Samuel 23:13-17. He shared that the association is not the Director of Missions and that the association does not operate and function on thin air. This association is made up of 72 churches who have agreed and committed themselves to be a part of this association. He challenged our churches not to decrease their giving – but to increase their giving....and to give generously. He then thanked the messengers for allowing him to serve as the Director of Missions for the past 14 years and challenged us to get behind our next Director of Missions.

Rev. Russ Maples presented Rev. Luck with a clock/plaque from the association in appreciation of his service as the Director of Missions for the past 14 years. He also presented a monetary gift to him from the Association churches.

Milburn Harmon, Minister of Music at First Baptist Decatur sang “The Light of that City”.

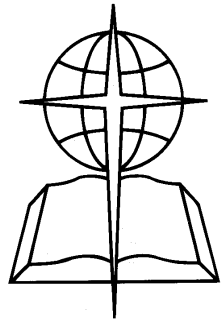

Rev. Travis Torbett, Pastor of Marshall Hill Baptist Church presented the annual sermon using I Peter 5:1-4 and Ecclesiastes 12:9 challenging pastors to keep preaching the word and to raise up the next generation instead of letting the next generation fall away. He also challenged us to pray for God to restore to us the joy of serving the Lord and to pray for revival. Rev. Torbett then closed in prayer.

Rev. Russ Maples then asked that we pray for revival, asking anyone who wished to come into the altar and asking Rev. Travis Torbett to lead us in prayer.

Rev. Carl Creasman, By-Laws Director read the Resolutions Report as printed in the Book of Reports on page 17. Motion approved to accept report as read.

Rev. Ray Luck, Director of Missions recognized Rev. Russ Maples as the outgoing Moderator of the Association. He also recognized the new officers for the upcoming year: Rev. Michael Hodsden, Moderator; Rev. Mark Wade, Associate Moderator; Kathy Fain, Association Clerk/Financial Secretary/

CAMP CHEROKEE REPORT

Rev. Mike Bernard, Camp Director

I want to take this opportunity to extend to this association a deep sense of gratitude for making Camp Cherokee possible. Camp experiences are some of the most precious events and memories in our people's lives. We had a slight increase in our attendance this year which is very promising for next year. God is still using Camp Cherokee to minister and change lives of campers as well as those who serve as workers in various capacities.

We are, as time and money is made available updating the camp. This year we were able to put a much needed roof on the Martha Moore House. This was made possible with the help of volunteers which included a Boy Scout working for his Eagle Scout. Along with this help came donations from individuals and some very generous businesses in our area. We are most grateful to these people. Many things are still in need to update. Good can come from bad. This year someone came into our camp and stole wiring and pipe from several buildings. The insurance company allowed us to update some of these with underground wiring and helped pay for it. This is most appreciated. Our goal is to have all wiring underground and each building roofed with metal roofing. This is a huge task but we will do it a step at a time. We just need to be patient and consistent as well as generous. Please pray for this ministry that has blessed hundreds since it began.

Bethel Springs

Ordained Tim McCarty as Deacon.

Cog Hill

Installed all new double paned windows in the sanctuary and then stain glass windows were installed over all the sanctuary. Mr. Glenn Trusley paid for all the windows and the stain glass windows in memory of his wife, Thelma Trusley who died on November 9, 2013. A dedication was held in memory also.

Double Springs

Dr. Shane Arnold resigned as pastor, July 2014.

East Niota

Celebrated their Pastor’s 5th Anniversary.

Eastanallee

In every area of the church, great growth occurred and the spirit of the Lord permeates every gathering. Sunday School had record breaking numbers and continues to swell. Vacation Bible School was an immeasurable success. Over 150 volunteered, more than 515 were in attendance, 13 people prayed to receive Christ and four others made commitments. Some fifty plus prospective families attended, and over 130 guests were brought. Growth is ongoing due to Vacation Bible School.

Women’s ministry continues to grow, reaching out to those in the community. They had over 200 women in attendance for the Beth Moore Simulcast. The Choir, Band, and Praise Team saw steady growth throughout the year, so much so that the platform was expanded to hold them. AWANA Clubs, Children’s Choirs, and a Summer Children’s Program experienced consistent growth, and a second children’s choir was begun. Worship services were so full that a second Sunday morning service was begun in April to accommodate the crowds, and in late summer construction began in order to expand worship seating capacity to around 950 people. Facility renovation is scheduled for completion in December 2014.

The student ministry, on a new path, had unprecedented spiritual growth as not only students, but student families were ministered to. Interns joined the staff in 2013 and continue to come in and go out. The Senior Adult Ministry grew in such a fashion that a Senior Adult Director was brought on staff. The former church building, which had become known as “the Rock” was renamed the Creasman Chapel in honor of former long-time pastor Oran Creasman who continues serving the seniors of Eastanallee.

Net membership gain for the year was 100, 55 of those by baptism. Visitors were plentiful during the year, many local, others from numerous states, plus several from other nations and continents. Mission projects recorded record-breaking combined giving of over $30,000 to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for International Missions and through the Annie Armstrong East Offering for North American Missions.

God continues to manifest His Presence at every worship service and is blessing both by continuing to give an attitude of joy to the members of EBC and by bringing in those searching for Him from every walk of life.

Mount Verd

New Bethel

What is a Baptist Association?

(An Association is what the churches make it.)

A Baptist Association is a self-governing fellowship of autonomous churches sharing a common faith and active on mission in their setting.

1. The churches of an association are free, independent, self-governing, autonomous churches that decide to associate themselves to do certain things together.
2. The fellowship of churches involves oneness, shared life, mutuality and koinonia. It is a “family” of churches and a network, in which churches give and receive assistance. The association as a fellowship emphasizes the relationship existing among the churches.
3. Sharing a common faith - The fellowship of an association is grounded in harmony in faith and practice. Associations differ in regard to the particular doctrinal issues that are important to their fellowship and in regard to the amount of diversity encouraged or tolerated on those issues. Nevertheless, the association, unlike state conventions, is a doctrinally based fellowship.
4. Active on mission refers to God’s mission for the churches individually and the churches together in association. The first responsibility of each church is to deal with the same question, “What is God’s mission for us together?”
5. In their setting deals with everything anyone means when he or she says of his or her association, “But I am in a peculiar situation.” Every situation is peculiar, that is, unique; and it is in the uniqueness of that situation that an association of churches has a very special responsibility to be on mission. Associations differ from one another in such ways as size; geographical territory; population; cultural, ethnic, religious, socioeconomic and demographic characteristics of the area; number, strength and types of churches; history; relationship to the state convention; and stage of development.
6. Self-governing - An association is created by the churches and is accountable to those churches through the messengers. An association, like other general bodies of Baptists, (state conventions, Southern Baptist Convention), is self-governing.

A Baptist Association is what the affiliated churches decide to make it. The messengers and executive board members selected by the churches make those basic decisions. The churches decide again what their association will become when they decide what percentage of their church budgets will go to associational missions.

Southern Baptists are committed to Bold Mission Thrust in a general way. You can be a part of what’s happening in a specific way through involvement in your church and association.
